Vol. III. No. 1 Quarryville (Lancaster County) Pa., Friday, Nov. 15, 1957 $2 Per Year

Exposition Opens; Countians Among Early Winners

Nearly 3,000 head of the nation's outstanding beef cattle, swine and sheep jammed the big State Farm Show building in Harrisburg Monday as the first annual Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition started.

Although the official dates of the affair are Nov. 12 to 16, judging of carcass classes started Monday. And in this early judging, a Lancaster County beef cattle breeder showed that the Garden Spot can show up well in the face of all comers.

Fred Frey, Quarryville, had the on foot champion steer in the carcass class. He showed in the summer yearling class. Another Angus, this one from the Pennsylvania State University, finished first in the junior yearling class and took reserve championship.

Another fast championship was brought home by Fred Burnhard, Mt Joy, by winning the purple rosette in the junior baby beef competition.

In the swine show Masonic Homes swept the Duroc competition and Stauffer Homestead Farms showed well in the Hampshire classes.

Stockmen from all parts of the nation are lavish in their praise of the facilities available at the Farm Show site.

Oscar Anderson, Illinois Poland China breeder, said that the swine facilities were among the best in all the shows. He should know, having shown champion barrows in the National Barrow show and at state fairs throughout the nation.

Another bouquet was handed Pennsylvania's initial effort in providing "big time" competition for Keystone breeders Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., president of the Eastern Polled Hereford Assn. and an exhibitor, said "It's terrific," when speaking of the entire exposition. He said the Pennsylvania exposition has the biggest beef breeding show ever held in the East.

For details on the various classes, see the separate stories throughout the paper.

4-H Delegation Needs Funds For Chicago Trip

Lancaster County this year is sending the largest delegation of 4-H members in its history to the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

They are the three members of the livestock judging team, the three members of the poultry and egg judging team and four girls with home economics demonstrations.

However this number of members attending is causing a problem in financing the trip. The average cost to each member will be about $160 for transportation, meals and lodging. This makes a total of $1,600 required for all the members to attend.

The state or county 4-H office does not have funds to cover these expenses. So this week in Lancaster County, a drive among the agricultural organizations and industries is being started to raise funds for the young men and women.

The drive is being headed by Abram Bucher and Stanley Musselman, both of Lancaster.

As of Monday [illegible] Has $200 had been promised by the Lancaster County Society of Farm Women, the 4-H and Extension Councils. This leaves $1,400 still to be raised.

The boys and girls will stay at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago and will be accompanied by executives from the state 4-H club office.

Filler Stocks Down 3 Per Cent From Last Year, Oct. 1 Tally Shows

Cigar filler stocks are down three per cent from a year ago and binder stocks are down 11 per cent, according to the Oct. 1 tally by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

During the 1956-57 marketing year, a total disappearance (exports plus domestic disappearance) of some 87.5 million pounds was noted for filler compared to 93.9 million pounds a year earlier.

For binder the total was 45.7 million pounds compared to 50 million pounds the preceeding year.

Stock reports of Oct 1 show that 128,359,000 pounds of types 41-44 tobacco are on hand. This compares with a 126,928,000 pound figure a year earlier.

Puerto Rican filler stocks are down 7,000,000 pounds from Oct. 1, 1956, to 50,312,000 pounds However foreign grown leaf stocks are up by nearly 4,000,000 pounds.

Total tobacco stocks in the United States and Puerto Rico total 4,918 million pounds as of Oct. 1. This is an increase of 135 million pounds compared with a year earlier.

Flue-cured stocks continued higher than for the corresponding date a year earlier, up five per cent, but this situation will reverse by the next reporting date because of the relatively small 1957 crop which is now being marketed by growers.

Holdings of Burley leaf this Oct. 1 were about the same as a year earlier while Maryland increased slightly, up two per cent.

Of the other kinds of tobacco, stocks of fire-cured showed an increase, but decreases from a year ago were shown for stocks of dark air-ured, cigar filler and cigar binder.

TO WINTERIZE YOUR HOME — Many doors and windows of farm homes fit loosely and can be tightened with weather stripping; tests have shown that a reduction of 12 per cent in the fuel bill is posssible by by weather stripping and the installation of storm windows and doors. Every door and window is a source of heat loss; attic insulation will not only reduce heat losses this winter but help keep your home cooler next summer.

TO ORDER YOUR CLOVER AND ALFALFA SEED — Be sure of your needs of these seeds by getting your supply reserved before late winter seedings are causing an active market. Many times the recommended varieties are sold out before the main rush of seeding gets under-way. Lancaster county red clover growers cannot afford to be satisfied with any other strain except Pennscott; it should out-yield all other varieties.

TO SPRAY WILD HONEY-SUCKLE — Early winter is the best time to use chemicals to kill honey-suckle vines. One of the recommended chemicals is to use one part of 2,4-5 T brush killer and 20 parts of No. 2 Fuel Oil; this mixture can be syrayed on the vines during late November, December, and January with good results. Do not spray on trees, shrubs or any other plant that is not to be killed.

TO ENROLL IN SHORT COURSES AT PENN STATE — A wide variety of short courses in many phases of agriculture are offered at Penn State University each winter; the four-week short course in general agriculture starts the first of January and may be continued for the second four-week period if desired. Details available at the Extension Service Office, or by writing to Director of Short Courses, Armsby Bldg, University Park, Pa.

CARROLL SHAFFNOR, Penn State shepherd, showed this 123 pound Hampshire wether to the top at the Exposition. The sire is Penn State's Bullmine Jr., and the wether is of the same breeding of the International Grand Champion last year. (LF Photo)

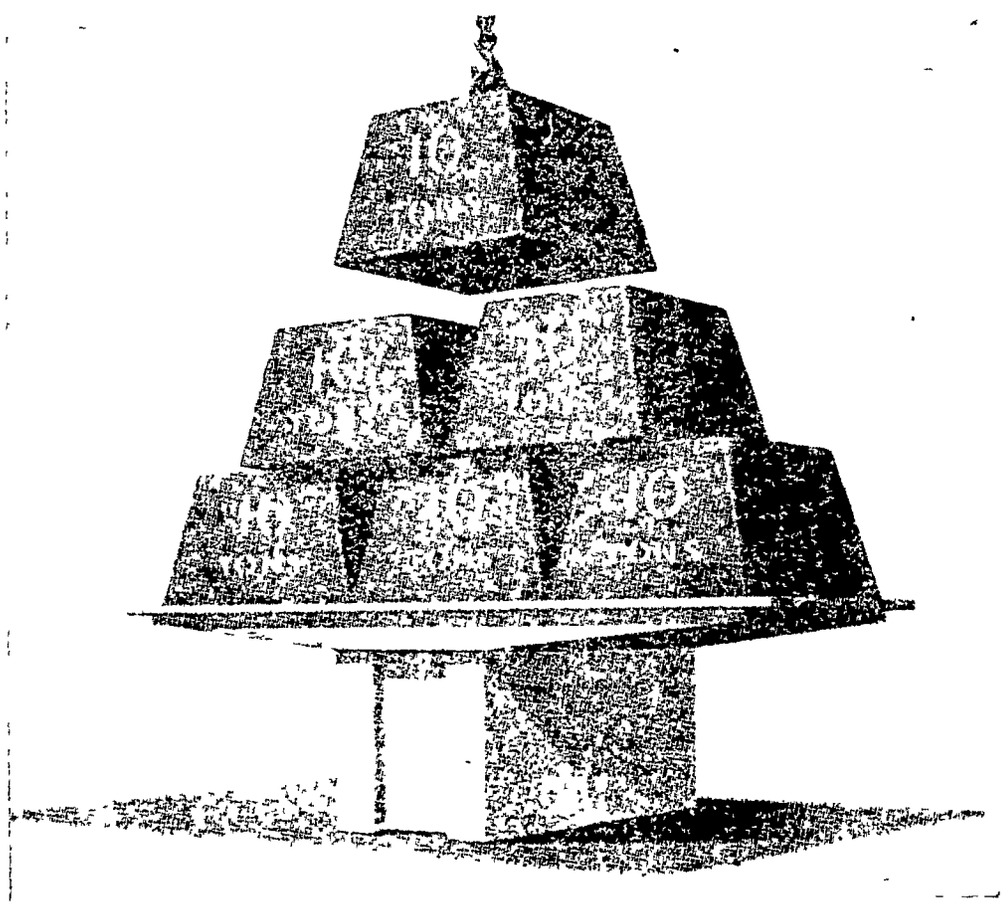
65 Tons on One Block



New Holland Concrete Blocks

THIS is a picture of today's "strong man" of the building industry — the modern concrete block The standard 8 x 8 x 16 inch block shown here has withstood laboratory weight tests to 65 tons

Buyers are interested in the strength of the materials that go into their buildings They want a building that will be a safe, long-term investment The resistance offered by concrete masonry to the many destructive forces of nature make it a logical choice

The intrinsic strength of concrete masonry makes it an ideal building material Decay and termites do not affect it Fires, internal and external, get nowhere This is especially true if there is a concrete floor and an asbestos cement shingle or concrete tile roof

For strength, endurance and safety, concrete masonry offers long-lasting values

Babcock's

Healthy Chicks Make Great Layers

Monroe C. Babcock

Babcock Bessie Has A Place On Your Poultry Farm

Why don't you consider these factors when planning your next batch of chicks Babcock Bessie is a real top commercial layer.

SIZE OF BIRD: At First Egg — About 3 5 lbs
At One Year of Age — 4 4 to 4 7 lbs.

DAYS TO FIRST EGG: This varies with time of year hatched Bessies are a little slower to mature than some other strains.

RATE OF LAY: Under ideal care Bessies will peak at 88% to 93%. Flock averages for 12 months of lay run 235 to 270 eggs per bird housed.

PERSISTENCY: Very long winded layer — 14 to 15 months continuous high lay. Production gets down to 60% to 55% at end of 15 months.

EGG SIZE: Excellent First twelve months of lay will usually run 82 to 85% large and extra large. From fourth month of lay on egg size will run 92% to 95% large and extra large. Very few double yolked eggs at anytime.

EGG SHAPE: Just about right in our opinion

SHELL COLOR: Chalk White.

SHELL STRENGTH: Good.

BLOOD SPOTS: Low — very satisfactory.

ALBUMEN QUALITY: Good.

PERCENT "A" 'S AND "AA" 'S: As shown by egg grading stations usually over 95%.

PLEASE NOTE: No bird that has laid heavily 12 to 15 months will lay a beautiful, strong shelled egg with high interior quality. Babcock Bessies will lay a fine egg for about 12 months, but after that their egg quality will go down hill.

HOW TO ORDER: Either write for prices or phone us collect.

4-H Steer Sale Disappointing

MEMBERS OF THE 4-H baby beef and lambs clubs throughout the Southeastern Pennsylvania area were disappointed Thursday at the prices they received at the club calf and lamb sale The average for the calves was only a few cents above market top.

We believe that with all the bally-hoo thrown out by certain businesses in Lancaster County this year in an effort in increase tourist traffic — at traffic that in a large part stems from the unique agriculture of this county — that at least one of the men doing most of the talking could have been on hand to buy one of the Lancaster County fed and raised steers.

If these "big time operators" expect to gain the confidence and backing of Lancaster County farmers, they had best awaken to the fact that a good word in the right place is one of the best public relations and promotion assets Having a reputation of not caring about the people being exploited will surely come home to roost eventually.

It's Our Second Birthday!

TODAY WE ARE celebrating our second birthday You'll notice that this Volume III, No. 1. In the newspaper business this is the time that a new paper can be considered to have come of age. We are now eligible to join all sorts of organizations of the trade such as the NEA, ABC, and so on down the alphabet

And since we are on the subject of newspapers as a whole and Lancaster Farming in particular, let's take a look at what we have been trying to do the last couple of years

Lancaster County has the highest farm population of any county in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania According to the most current stastics, there are some 7,900 farms in the county with about 6,500 of them of a real commercial farm size This offers a demand for a newspaper devoted to the interest of the farmer

This is why we are in existence

Now what have we been trying to do?

The newspaper industry is full of people constantly taking polls and surveys of what people like and dislike in the various mediums of communication — newspapers, radio and television One of the things that they have found will probably surprise you.

They have found that in newspapers and magazines, advertising has almost as much interest for the average reader than some of the editorial content In the two broadcast mediums this is not the case at all And in Lancaster Farming we believe that we have carried some of the most interesting and informative farm advertising in the trade

One thing that readers indicated that they despise is the practice of many newspapers of "jumping" stories from one page to another

Since we saw the results of this survey, we have tried to hold "jumps" to a minimum This sometimes makes a page look slightly full and dull, but when you start to read an article, you know that in most cases you are going to be able to finish it without having to search for the end of it on some other page You notice that we say 'most of the time Frequently the best laid plans of all of us go astray

Another survey showed that the old theory that readers want to make up their own minds — that they want only the bare facts — is refuted by all kinds of evidence Readers like to be told what is important and what is not important They want help in understanding the news and recognizing its importance

We also operate under the theory that people want and like pictures — big pictures To this end we have installed a new modern photographic darkroom and engraving machine that allows us to compete in the picture field with any newspaper anywhere

It s a Happy Birthday for us and we're glad that you are here to help us celebrate!

50 YEARS AGO (1907)

John C Earl, financial secretary of the Bowery Mission, New York City, made an appeal for national aid to carry on the work The appeal stated in part

"The Bowery Mission 'Bread Line' at which 1,000 men who are in the streets for the night are given a breakfast of hot coffee and rolls every morning at one o'clock, is one of the most pathetic sights in all this wide, wide world Long before the hour of opening, these poor, starving men stand in single line that sometimes extends for blocks in length, waiting for the coffee and rolls

"During the winter of 1906 this breakfast was given to 144,000 homeless men and boys The first of these breakfasts is given on Thanksgiving morning, and the last on the following Easter Sunday morning

"The despairing men and boys are not native New Yorkers, but men and boys, until within a year, lived at their old homestead with father and mother, and perhaps a wife They are stranded here in New York Shall we turn them away? It rests with the good people of this country to decide this question, and may God graciously help you to decide it alright"

Farmer Helped To Steal His Own Hogs

Samuel Smith, a farmer residing in the heart of Pennsylvania s Conewago hills helped to steal his own hogs at a late hour that Sunday night in November, 1907

Smith, who was sound asleep, was wakened by violent knocking at the door Raising the window, he saw two men in the yard, who told him that a number of their hogs had escaped through the endgate of their wagon on their way to Harrisburg market

They asked the farmer's permission to go into his fields and roundup the swine

Smith consented and said that he would help them After an hour of hard work the porkers were loaded on the wagon, and the men were profuse in their thanks for the farmer's aid

In the morning, when Smith went out to feed his stock he discovered he had been duped, and every hog missing which he had helped to steal

Back in November, 1907, an unusual occurience took place at Lancaster home of Mr and Mrs Henry K Shue, near White Oak in Rapho Twp. That Friday afternoon Mrs Shue presented her husband with a bouncing baby boy, and on Saturday morning she gave him a surprise by giving birth to a second son

While the boys were considered twins, one was a day older than the other According to a local physician, the births was a rare case in medical history

The 1907 session of Lancaster County Teachers Institute took place in the Martin Auditorium at Lancaster, 50 years ago this week

The first person to register was Charles Oberholzer, of Salisbury Twp , who had been the first for several years Second to register was Harry Hes, of Oregon

Fifty years ago a Lancaster farm in the Taylorla area containing 88 acres, was sold to Mrs Erastus Hastings, of Philadelphia for $18 per acre

25 Years Ago

Pennsylvania s Governor Pinchot began his Thanksgiving proclamation with the introduction used by Governor Simon Snyder in 1817 It read:

'Although the wise and Holy Governor of the universe has in His righteous providence afflicted divers sections of the United States with wasting sickness, yet have we the greatest reason to adore and praise the Supreme Disposer of events, we deserve, has averted from our State the hand of the destroying angel, and blessed our land with the fruits of the earth in the greatest abundance"

Three Young Duck Hunters Narrowly Escape Drowning

Screaming for help and clinging frantically to a submerged rock for a long time before being rescued from the Susquehanna River, near Columbia, Salem Wall 17, James Will, 18 and Salem Schlotthaur, 20, narrowly escaped death by drowning The boys were duck hunting Their boat overturned and none of them could swim They were able to reach the rock

David Lease, residing near the river shore, heard the cries for help He summoned Perry Miles, who owned a boat, and together they rescued the young men

Leroy Dietz nine, son of Mr and Mrs William J Dietz, Lancaster R1, who was injured by a hit and-run driver, died in the Lancaster General Hospital The boy was run down near his home, on the Harrisburg pike, about oneand a-half mile west of Lancaster

Howard Shaffer, residing in Codorus Twp , York County, 25 years ago, was in the West Side Sanitarium, York, suffering injuries of the left hip, inflicted by an enraged sheep buck Shaffer was chasing a number of sheep into a pen, when the buck turned on him and made a vicious attack.

One of the first aerial weddings on record. to which all invited out-of-town guests came by airplane, was solemnized during November, 1932, at Bloomsburg, Pa., when Samuel R Bigony, one of the pilots at the Bloomsburg airport was married to Miss Florence Schmidt, of York.

Rev D L. Bomboy, pastor of the Lutheran Church, performed the ceremony Attending the couple were Miss Evelyn Schultz, York, and Claude Martin, Shamokin, a parachute jumper. Later in the afternoon the newlyweds left by plane for New York

On the Lancaster farm of James Harra, Colerain Twp , the owner was surprised about midnight when he found a stray hog wandering about his premises In the morning he found more pigs, the visitor having farrowed during the night

Twin boys, born two days after the November, 1932, presidential election to Mr and Mrs. William Nindorf, puzzled their parents for names for a few days

Then it was decided to name the first-born after Franklin Roosevelt, the President-elect, and the other, ten minutes younger, after Herbert Hoover, the encumbent

Twenty-five years ago this week a meeting of the Lancaster Tobacco Growers' Assn was held at the new experiment station one-half mile south of Roseville

Center of Faith

Lesson for November 17, 1957

WHERE is the center of Christian faith? What is it that if we don't believe we can hardly believe anything else? Every one would agree that the center of Christian faith is Christ The religion called by his name is not by any means first of all a philosophy a collection of ideas, a system of thought a set of rituals It is first of all a Person, and then it is the lives of other persons who have been touched by this Person But what is central about Jesus? His virgin birth? His teaching? His cross? His character? Nowhere in the New Testament is his birth mentioned except in two Gospels, so we have no reason to say that the early Church considered his birth or the manner of it, highly important His teaching is referred to in most epistles, but only in a rather sketchy way We have to go back to the Gospels to find what Jesus taught Much stress was laid on the cross by the early Church but even this takes second place

Dr. Foreman

Central for the Church

In the Greek New Testament in the part outside the Gospels, —that is the part that contains the early Christian preaching and teaching—there are 11 specific references to Christ's cross and nine to the crucifixion—a total of twenty On the other hand there are eight references to the resurrection of Christ and the expression "God raised him from the dead or equivalent phrases will be found 32 times—a total of forty From the data we have in our New Testaments therefore we can say that the resurrection loomed twice as large in the mind of the early Church as did the crucifixion Paul in his Corinthian letter uses the words meaning 'of first importance about Christ s crucifixion and resurrection, but he dwells on the resurrection at much greater length, as any reader can see for himself

Central for Faith

Consider what the situation would be if Christ had not risen from the dead In the first place, we should not have had the Church It is on record that the disciple forsook the crucified Jesus but the risen Christ drew their strongest and undying loyalty It was the resurrection that changed a band of timid men, even cowards, into the beginnings of a mighty army to overspread the earth

Someone asked a French statesman what it would take to start a new religion Very simple, said the old man Just get yourself crucified and then rise from the dead!

If Christ had not risen what would be remembered of him? Some of his teachings very likely; but there would be no essential difference between him and other teachers of the past If Christ had not risen we might have admired his thoughts and the way he expressed them The risen Christ challenges more than admiration, —devotion More than once in the New Testament the resurrection appears also as the one single event more than any other, which carried the first Christians' minds to heights of faith

His Life and Ours

Men did not arrive at belief in Christ's deity by pondering the crucifixion, rather by meditating on the resurrection It is the resurrection that gives the crucifixion its meaning

Besides all this, it is clear in the New Testament that the resurrection of Christ is our best way of understanding what our own destiny will be There is a great deal we do not understand about this. Not all the New Testament together answers all our questions But Paul sees the Easter story as so important that if it had not happened our whole faith is vain Furthermore the best reason for believing that death will not make an end of Christ's people is that death did not make an end of him. If he went on living, changed yet the same, so we may believe that after this present life is over and our work here done, we too, in ways of which only God knows the secret will go on living, changed —bearing "the image of the man of heaven"—yet still our very selves with the weakness and the darkness gone, imperishable and victorious, sharing his conquest of death

SCC Urging FFA Chapters To Seek Prize

The State Soil Conservation Commission Monday urged Pennsylvania's Future Farmers of America to wor together with soil conservation districts in a $1,000 award program to help "sell" conservation of natural resources to farmers and the consumer public

Secretary of Agriculture William L Henning, chairman of the Commission, and George D Derr, vocational agriculture consultant in the State Department of Public Instruction, said farmers and consumers alike will benefit by the program.

Henning declared the soil-saving program helps provide higher income to farmers and community businesses, guarantees cleaner water supplies and improves hunting and fishing

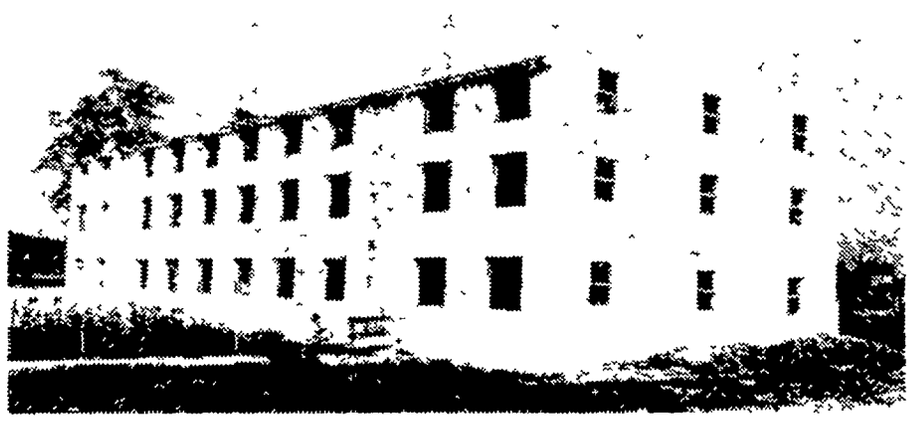
Prizes exceeding $1,000 are being offered FFA chapters in the state that participate in the program and score the greatest number of points for conservation activities Area vocational agriculture supervisors will be responsible for keeping FFA chapters in their region informed of the program, Derr said

According to Edward Fisher, Coudersport, Potter County, president of the State Association of Soil Conservation District Directors, contest booklets have been sent to all FFA chapters in the 48 counties where soil conservation districts exist.

LATE FIELD REPORT —

John Stoltzfus proves efficiency of NEW SUPER FUL-O-PEP

2,500 hens on the John L Stoltzfus Farm, Bareville, Pa, averaged laying 23 4 eggs per bird during latest 30-day reported period on new SUPER Ful-O-Pep Laying Ration That's super performance! The results of new SUPER Ful-O-Pep.



This unusual record was made with birds of good breeding and the help of good management in the laying house. However, several poultrymen have reported producing a doz eggs on 3 lbs. of SUPER Ful O-Pep under average good farm conditions.

Only 2.61 lbs. total feed produces 1 doz. eggs!

2,500 hens fed new SUPER Ful-O-Pep Laying Ration at the John L Stoltzfus Farm Bareville, Pa, averaged producing a doz eggs on 2.61 lbs. of total feed! "I could hardly believe it myself," says Mr Stoltzfus, "but I'm certain the figures are correct Now I know why your folks named that new feed SUPER Ful O-Pep"

Total feed cost — 13½ cents per doz. eggs!

"I keep accurate records of feed consumed and eggs produced" says Mr Stoltzfus "and I can tell you to the fraction of a penny my feed cost per dozen eggs I'm in this business to make money and as long as I can produce a dozen eggs for 13½¢ — I'll do alright!"

Cider Producers Get Warning From State

HARRISBURG — Wholesale violations of two important State food laws were announced today by State Agriculture Secretary William L Henning who warned producers of cider to comply with state regulations.

Intensive investigations by agents of the Bureau of Foods and Chemistry, State Department of Agriculture, show roadside stands and market houses as the biggest offenders.

Under the state general food law and the sanitary container law producers of cider must meet rigid specifications.

According to Delmar K. Myers, acting director of the Bureau of Foods and Chemistry, violations have been noted on one or all of three counts — the sanitizing of containers, improper labelling of the receptacles and failure to declare the presence of the preservative sodium benzoate, if used in cider.

Myers said most of the violations are for insanitary bottles and jugs. He warned that many producers do not properly clean these containers and therefore could contribute to illness of consumers.

The law requires the name and address of the producer on each label, the name of the product and the net contents. Producers must not add more than one ounce of sodium benzoate to every eight gallons of cider.

Violators are subject to maximum fines of $1,000 for third offenders. First offense fines are a minimum of $60 and a maximu mof $100, Myers said.

With the Thanksgiving Holiday approaching, agents of the Bureau of Foods and Chemistry will be alerted to take more samples of cider to be analyzed than in past years "to protect the health of the people drinking cider," Myers declared.

Upon taking samples of cider, or any food or liquid offered for sale in Pennsylvania, Department agents forward them to one of the five regional laboratories where the contents are examined by chemists to detect violations of state laws.

County Steer Junior Champ At Exposition

Fred Bernhard, 17, 4-H Club member of R2 Mt. Joy, won the [illegible]d championship of the 4-H Club and F.F.A. steer show at the Pennsylvania Livestock Exposition.

He showed "Maxie," an Angus that took first place in the junior yearling class of that breed and then the Angus breed championship. For the grand championship of the show he competed against the champions of the Hereford and Shorthorn breeds. "Maxie" was bred by Old Home Manor Farm, Indiana, Indiana County, Pa.

Fred, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard W. Bernard, has fed steers for two years as his 4-H livestock project in the Lancaster County 4-H Baby Beef Club, a program conducted by his County Agent M. M. "Max" Smith. Fred is a graduate of Donegal High School and is enrolled in an electronics correspondent course.

Reserve grand championship of the junior market steer show was won by Thomas Hinricks, 13, a fourth year 4-H'er of Woodville, Ohio. He showed "Whitey," a Hereford that finished first in the junior yearling class of that breed and also took the Hereford breed title

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Hinricks who operate Portage Farms, he obtained his steer from his father's herd. Sire of 'Whitey' was champion at the 1955 International Livestock Exposition at Chicago.

Tommy is a straight-"A" student in seventh grade and plans to study engineering when he gets to college.

Dennis Sangrey, Conestoga, took the Angus reserve championship, and Mary Ann Zimmerman, Freehold, N. J, the Hereford reserve title.

Marion Hackman, Elizabethtown, won the Shorthorn breed championship, and Arden Bull, Jr., Washburn, Me, the Shorthorn reserve championship.

Now...you may grow 320-pound calves in only 4 months

Purina Calf Chows are easily digested, highly palatable... practically eliminate nutritional scouring and death loss

Now you may raise 320-pound heifer calves in only 4 months' time.

In recent feeding work at Purina's Research Farm, 89 calves were fed exclusively on Purina's Nursing Chow-Calf Startena Program. At 4 months of age, the Holstein heifers in this group averaged 320 pounds . . . a full 60 pounds heavier than is considered "good" for calves of that age. (Average as reported in Morrison's "Feeds and Feeding.")

And, these calves put on their vigorous, healthy growth for less than half the cost of whole milk feeding.

Simple . . . Easy . . . Cost-Cutting

Purina's Calf Program takes advantage of the life stimulating powers of colostrum . . . It provides the extra vitamins, minerals, energy, and disease protection not found in whole milk.

How the Purina Calf Program Works:

Colostrum for the first 3 days. Gives your calf Nature's miraculous disease-resistance factors. This storehouse of energy and antibodies has no substitute.

Nursing Chow (Purina) for the next 30 days, plus Calf Startena. Gives calves minerals, vitamins, energy, and disease protection not found in whole milk.

Calf Startena (Purina) for the next 3 months. It is during this "fast growth" period that Purina-fed calves make gains up to triple their birth weight, build strong bones and smooth coats. At 4 months, they're big, rugged heifers already halfway to breeding weight.

Practical Dairymen Agree

Practical dairymen throughout the country have often stated: "My calves really go for these Purina Calf Chows" "... they have proved easily digestible" "Nutritional scouring and death loss have been practically eliminated."

Ask us about the facts on Nursing Chow and Calf Startena. Order some. Aim to grow big, husky calves in only 4 months on your farm.

Chicken's Versatile Food That May Be Prepared in Variety of Ways

Chicken is such a versatile food that there is little or no reason for us to tire of it. It can be fried, stewed, roasted, used in casseroles and salads, or in any way you wish. Today we have some recipes for you making use of the stewing chicken. We hope you'll try them for some delicious eating.

TO COOK STEWING CHICKEN to obtain meat for slicing, salads, creaming, etc.: Place whole or cut-up chicken in kettle. Add one-half to one cup water and one-half to three-fourth teaspoon salt for each pound. Quantity of water used depends on amount of broth desired.) Simmer until thickest portions are just fork-tender, 2½ to 4 hours. Remove chicken. Cool chicken and broth promptly. Cover and refrigerate unless served immediately. If desired, three or four peppercorns, one small carrot, a celery stick, and one small onion may be cooked with the chicken for additional flavor.

BAKED CHICKEN SALAD

2 cups cooked chicken, ½-inch dice
1½ cups celery, ¼-inch dice
¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
Grated rind of ½ lemon
1 tablespoon lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ to ⅓ cup salad dressing
Salt and pepper
1 cup (¼ lb.) grated Cheddar cheese
1 cup crushed potato chips (4 ounces)

Measure chicken, celery, almonds, onion, lemon rind and juice, and pepper into mixing bowl. Add salad dressing. Toss lightly to blend ingredients. If desired, add additional salt and pepper. Divide into four individual shallow casseroles or a 1-quart casserole. Sprinkle cheese over top. Top with the potato chips. Place casseroles on baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees 25 minutes), or until cheese begins to bubble. 4 servings. Crinberry sauce is a good accompaniment.

* * *

HARVEST CASSEROLE

One stewing chicken, about 3 pounds, ready-to-cook weight, cut up.
¾ cup flour
1 tablespoon salt
2 teaspoons paprika
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 clove garlic, optional
½ cup fat for frying
8 onions
8 carrots
3 cups cooked rice
3 cups chicken gravy

Shake chicken in paper or plastic bag with mixture of the flour, salt, paprika, and pepper. Brown chicken in the moderately hot fat, turning to brown evenly. If used, add clove or garlic. Reduce heat to low, add the water, cover tightly, and continue cooking until chicken is almost fork-tender, about 2½ to 3 hours. Meanwhile cook vegetables and prepare gravy.

For the gravy, use 5 tablespoons fat and 5 tablespoons of flour and 3 cups of water or milk. Measure flour into the measured quantity of fat in skillet. Blend and set over low heat. Cook until frothy, then add the milk or water, all at once. Increase heat and cook, stirring constantly, until uniformly thickened. Cover and simmer about 5 minutes. Season to taste.

Line the bottom and sides of a large casserole with the rice. Add chicken and vegetables. Top with the hot gravy. Cover and cook in a hot oven (400 degrees) about 30 minutes, or until gravy is bubbly. Serve from casserole. 8 generous servings.

* * *

CHICKEN AND NOODLES

2½ to 3 pound stewing chicken, ready-to-cook weight, cut up
6 tablespoons flour
¼ cup chicken fat or other shortening
1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 clove garlic, optional
2 teaspoons salt
¼ to ½ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon allspice or ginger
½ cup hot water
1 package noodles, 6 to 8 ounces (The same quantity of macaroni or spaghetti may be substituted for noodles.)
½ cup chopped parsley

Coat chicken with the flour. Brown in the moderately hot fat, turning to brown evenly. Sprinkle onion, garlic if used, and seasonings over chicken. Add water, cover tightly, and simmer until thickest pieces are fork-tender, 3 to 3½ hours. By this time there should be rich drippings in the pan. If the water evaporates before chicken is tender, add more water in one-third cup portions, as needed. About 15 minutes before chicken is done, cook noodles following package directions. Drain. Meanwhile lift chicken to warm service dish. Blend noodles and parsley with the pan drippings and arrange around chicken. Makes 6 servings.

HOT AND HEARTY CHICKEN SANDWICH

Chicken Filling

1 tablespoon buter or margarine
2 tablespoons minced onion
¼ cup diced celery
1 cup chopped cooked chicken
6 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon chopped pimento
½ cup chicken broth, about
Salt and pepper
1 tablespoon minced parsley
½ cup green pepper, chopped
Flour for coating
Fat for sauteing

Sandwich Ingredients

6 buns, split
Mayonnaise, butter, or margarine
Pickle relish
Lettuce
6 tomato slices

Melt the one tablespoon butter or margarine in skillet and cook onion and celery until onion is soft but not brown. Add chicken bread crumbs, pimento, and enough chicken broth to moisten mixture for shaping into patties. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Cool slightly. Blend in parsley and green papper. Shape into six patties to fit buns. Coat patties with flour. Saute slowly until brown, about 5 minutes on each side.

Meanwhile, toast cut side of buns. Spread with mayonnaise, butter, or margarine. Spread pickle relish on one half of buns, top with lettuce and tomato slice. Place hot chicken patty on other half of but. Serve promptly—open or closed style. Makes 6 hearty sandwiches.

* * *

DELMONICO CHICKEN SANDWICH

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon mustard
Dash of cayenne
2 cups milk
2 cups (½ lb.) chipped or grated sharp cheese
4 slices toast
Sliced cooked chicken meat for four servings
Paprika
4 slices crisp bacon
8 slices tomato

Melt butter or margarine over low heat. Add flour, salt, mustard, and cayenne. Blend thoroughly. Add milk all at once. Cook until uniformly thickened, stiring constantly. Add cheese and stir until blended. Meanwhile arange toast on a heat-proof platter or in a shallow casserole—individual if desired—and top with chicken. Pour cheese over chicken. Sprinkle with paprika. Place in a very hot oven (450 degrees) or in broiler to heat until sauce is bubbly, 6 to 10 minutes. Garnish with the bacon and tomato. Serve promptly. 4 servings.

For __ years we've supplied you with quality PURINA CHOWS...

NOW WE BRING YOU Purina-Approved CHECK-R-MIX SERVICE

During these years it has been our privilege to supply this community with world famous Purina Chows.

Now, through the addition of proper grinding and mixing equipment, we can also offer Purina-approved Check-R-Mix Service.

This means we can help you take advantage of "The Purina Way to Make YOUR Grain Pay!" Bring us your grain. We now can grind and mix it with the RIGHT AMOUNT of the RIGHT CONCENTRATE to build efficient Check-R-Mix livestock and poultry rations for you at low out-pocket cost.

Back of our Check-R-Mix emblem is the nation's most experienced grain-balancing program. The same research facilities that govern the formulation of Purina Chows are available to produce Purina Concentrates and spell out the farm-tested Check-R-Mix mixing formulas which assure efficient rations from your grain.

"A RATION IS NO BETTER THAN IT

WHITESIDE & WEICKSEL

1 cup whipping cream
½ cup mashed strawberries

Pour the cold water into a saucepan and sprinkle the gelatin on top of the water. Let stand for 5 minutes.

Place saucepan over a low heat and stir until the gelatin has dissolved. Add the hot cooked rice. Add sugar, salt and vanilla. Mix well and cool. When mixture begins to thicken, fold in the cream which has been whipped. Add the well. Some strawberries are sweeter than others, so taste to see that the sugar used is enough. Turn into a greased mold or individual molds or pile into individual dessert dishes. If the Rice Strawberry Bavarian has been molded, chill until firm. Then unmold and serve with sliced sweetened strawberries. This recipe makes 5 servings.

QUICK BUTTERSCOTCH RICE DESSERT

Make this dessert by cooking together ¾-cup uncooked rice and 4 cups milk in a large saucepan. Place the saucepan over a low heat for the cooking period. Cook covered, for about one hour or until the rice has absorbed the milk. Stir several times during the cooking. While the rice and milk are cooking together, mix two cups dark brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ cup butter or margarine. Cook over low heat until this mixture becomes syrupy. Then add one teaspoon of vanilla. Stir this brown sugar mixture into the hot cooked rice. Chill before serving. If desired, press the warm rice and brown sugar mixture into a well greased dessert mold. Chill and then unmold. Serve the dessert or the molded butterscotch rice dessert with whipped cream. For a "company pretty" dessert, sprinkle chopped red cherries over the whipped cream, which has been arranged around the molded dessert or on top of the dessert.

One of our readers has sent us a recipe for Chocolate Cookies. She says in her letter:

I enjoy reading the Lancaster Farming very much, especialy the recipes. I have tried quite a few with success and wish to try some more. Also enjoy the quilt patterns very much. I am sending a receipt for Chocolate Cookies.

CHOCOLATE COOKIES

Mrs. Elizabeth Zimmerman, Terre Hill

4 cups brown sugar
1½ cups butter and lard
3 cups buttermilk ¾ cup cocoa
3 teaspoons vanilla
3 teaspoons soda
3 teaspoons cream of tarter
1 teaspoon salt

Add enough flour to drop from spoon.

Cream the sugar and lard. Sift the dry ingredients and add alternately with buttermilk.

Are you getting bored with icing your cakes with the same icing time after time? How about trying these?

MARSHALLOW LEMON ICING

2 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon water
3 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 drops almond extract
16 marshallows

Place unbeaten egg whites, sugar, water and lemon juice in saucepan; beat with egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place on low heat. Beat constantly with rotary beater 3 to 4 minutes or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from heat; add lemon and almond extract. Beat until thick enough to spread. Fold in marshmallows which have been cut in quarters. Spread on cake. Yield: Icing for tops and sides of a 2-layer cake.

Note: For white Icing omit water, lemon juice and rind; substitute ¼ cup of water.

RICH CHOCOLATE ICING

1½ squares unsweetened chocolate
½ cup cream or top milk
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 egg yolk
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar

Place chocolate, cream and butter in a saucepan on low heat. Stir until chocolate has melted. Cool slightly. Beat in unbeaten egg yolk, salt and vanilla. Stir in confectioners' sugar until frosting is thick enough to spread. This makes enough icing for the tops of 2 (8 or 9-inch) layers. Double the recipe for 4 layers of cake.

E-Z CHOCOLATE GOODIES

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 (6-ounce) package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 pound marshmallows
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup crisp rice cereal
1 cup broken nut meats

Place first three ingredients in 2-quart covered saucepan in order given. Heat over low heat for 35 minutes. Stir mixture; continue heating 10 minutes longer. Add remaining ingredients; mix thoroughly. Spread in greased 8-inch square pan. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Cut in squares. Yield: 2 dozen squares.

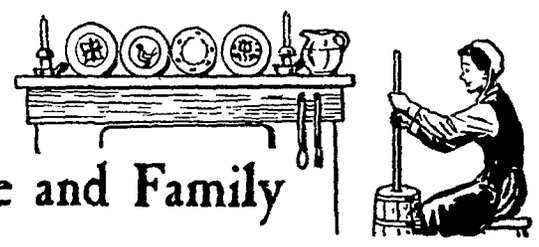
Several weeks ago we requested some recipes for baked squash and our good friend Emma Fox has sent us some. Her first recipe is for

For the Farm Wife and Family



BAKED SQUASH

Emma S. Fox, RD3 Ephrata

1 squash
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
3 tablespoons Brer Rabbit Molasses
1½ teaspoons hot water
3 tablespoons butter

Wash squash; quarter, remove seeds. Cook in boiling salted water several minutes. Peel. Place squash in baking dish; sprinkle with salt and sugar. Combine molasses and hot water; pour over squash. Dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 55 minutes or until tender.

* * *

SQUASH GEMS

Emma S. Fox, RD3 Ephrata

⅔ cup mashed squash
1 cup milk
½ cup sugar
1 well-beaten egg
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspons cream of tartar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter

Combine squash and milk. Stir in sugar and egg. Mix and sift flour, baking soda, cream of tartar, and salt. Add to first mixture. Add butter.

Turn into hot, greased cupcake pans. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 20 to 30 minutes or until done.

Farm Women 2 Making Plans For Banquet

Society 2 met in the home of Mrs. Charles Keller, R2 Lititz, on the afternoon of Nov. 9. The program started with the group singing three songs.

Mrs. Mary Sahrn read the scripture. She selected the 96th Psalm, which was followed by the Lord's Prayer and a salute to the flag.

Roll call was answered with safety hints. Twenty members were present.

During the business session, a report was given on a baked goods sale held Nov. 8. The Society will give a donation to Muscular Dystrophy and to the Christmas Seal campaign.

The president, Mrs. John O. Snavely, appomted a committee of three to select a place for the annual banquet, the date and the menu. The officers of the Society met Monday evening to plan the year book.

A box of food, frozen and canned fruits and vegetables and chickens, was collected to be given to the Rev. and Mrs. Foellner in Manheim for distribution.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and tthe two co-hostesses, Mrs. Ruth Keller, and Mrs. Roy R. Shelly.

Champion Baby Beef Brings $.77 Per Pound; Reserve Stays in County

The reserve champion steer at the Southeast District 4-H Baby Beef and Lamb Club Roundup stayed here in the County as S. J. Hildebrand, Strasburg, paid 53 cents a pound for the Hereford shown by Dorothy Groff, R7 Lancaster.

The Grand Champion brought 77 cents a pound and was bought for Acme Markets by George McMillen, beef buyer for the supermarket chain.

The average for the 241 steers sold was $28.20 a hundredweight, $1 24 less than a year ago, and $1 20 over the top for prime cattle at Chicago Thursday.

The steers weighed a total of 242,215 pounds and brought a total price of $68,312. The average weight per steer was 1,005 pounds.

The top Shorthorn steer, shown by Terry Petticoffer, R3 Elizabethtown, brought 35 cents a pound from Standard Packing Co , Linden, N J. He was a special banquet purchase for Diana Motors, Elizabeth, N J

Only 31 of the steers were brought by local buyers. Of these, two were bought by Stock Yards Inn and one was purchased by Lancaster County National Bank to be donated to the Red Rose 4-H Baby Beef Club for its annual banquet.

Buying the largest number of steers in the Lancaster area was Kinzler and Co , Lancaster Packing firm, with 13 Four steers, including the reserve champion, were purchased by Hildebrand and Lancaster Packing Co. took home three.

Kilheffer's Food Market, Lancaster, bought two as did Dagen's Super Market, Willow Street Single animals were bought by Richard Hollinger, Roy Mull and John Plank, all of Lancaster, and Musser Lockers, Buck

Topping the sale purchases was the Schuderberg Kurdle Co , Baltimore, with 33 animals for a total of $9,248 Consolidated Dressed Beef Co , Philadelphia, bought 29 and Standard Packing Co , bought 24.

During the morning preceeding the sale, the lamb show was held Showing the grand Champion pen of three lambs was William Hartman, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs Robert Hartman, R2 Lebanon. His victory gave Lebanon County a sweep of the grand championships at the three day show, as a Lebanon County girl took top honors in the steer division.

And again Lancaster County had the reserve championship A Pen of three Hampshires shown by Richard Toews, 11, son of Mr and Mrs Jacob Towes, R2 Lancaster, filled the runner-up spot.

Champion Chevoits were shown by Chester Cohick, R1 Camp Hill

J P. Warfel Inc , Lancaster, paid young Hartman 30 cents a pound for the lambs at the auction sale in the afternoon. They weighed in at 295 and were purchased for Samuel Hippey, Willow Street.

The reserve pen, weighing 400 pounds, brought $27 50 a hundred and went to Consolidated Five Chevoits offered by Cohick brought the same price at the same weight

Average for the 32 lambs sold was $27 72. $1 46 above last year.

In the baby beef sale, the bidding bogged down after the champions were sold, and only after much chiding and work on the part of auctioneer Abram

THE WINNING PEN OF three lambs at the Southeastern District 4-H Baby Beef and Lamb Show at the Lancaster Stock Yards Thursday was owned by William Hartman, R2 Lebanon. Young Hartman's win gave Lebanon County a clean sweep of livestock championships this year. Previously Lebanon County entries had won the baby beef and barrow championships. (LF Photo)

Diffenbach, did the bids rally at the end of the sale.

County agents of the 13 counties represented were unanimous in their disappointment with the sale prices and many said the baby beef program in their areas would finish the year in the red.

Most of the young cattlemen had paid in the range of 30 cents for the animals as feeders.

Beef Cows Pay for Selves In 5-9 Years, Texans Say

A recent study on Blackland farms of Texas shows that 10 to 15 beef cows will pay for themselves in from five to nine years. On farms where calves were sold without grain feeding, the study showed that it would take nine years to pay the cost of theb reeding herd

A PEN OF LIGHTWEIGHT Durocs entered by Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown, topped their class at the Exposition. Two of the five-and-a-half month old barrows weighed 199 pounds and the other an even 200. The littermates were sired by Hazelton Prince. (LF Photo)

Masonic Homes Durocs Sweep Class Honors

The Masonic Homes Farm of Elizabethtown, copped all four championship classes in the Duroc barrows show at the Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition

Stock from the Lancaster County farm were selected as the champion and reserve champion barrows and the champion and reserve champion pens of barows

Judge for the event was R Alan Williams of Iowa City, Iowa

George W Corron, McComb, Ohio, swept all championship classes in Chester White Market barrows His entries took individual and pen championships and also both reserve championships

The judge was R Alan Williams

C R Galbreath & Sons, Street, Md, won the championships for both individual and pen of Berkshire market barrows. They also won the reserve championship in individual entries The reserve title in pens went to Harold H Yake & Son, Cardington, Ohio.

Wilbur Plager, Des Moines, Iowa, was judge

Wendell McKissick of Slippery Rock, Butler County, Pa, showed three top winners in the Spotted Poland China market barrow classes

The McKissick entries won the champion and reserve champion individual awards, also the champion pen. All four top places in Poland China market barows were won by Oscar W Anderson and Sons of Leland, Ill.

Anderson's animals won the champion and reserve champion barow banner and the champion and reserve champion pen of barrows

The judge was Wilbur Plager H E Millard Lime & Stone Co, Annville, Lebanon county, Pa, today took three top places in Hampshire market barrows

Millard entries won the champion and reserve champion barrow and champion pen The reserve champion pen was entered by Stauffer Homestead Farm, East Earl, Lancaster county, Pa

Food, Nutrition Group Cites Need For Research on Fats Effect on Diet

Studies to provide better knowledge of fats and their role in human nutrition were favored by the U. S Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Research Advisory Committee at its annual meeting in Washington, Nov. 4-6. The 11-member committee assigned high priority to three comprehensive proposals for extended research on dietary fats.

Established under the Research and Marketing Act of 1946, the committee is composed of outstanding food and nutrition authorities from all over the country. Its detailed recommendations for food and nutrition research to be undertaken by USDA will be submitted formally to the Department within the next few weeks. Copies of this report will be available from the committee's executive secretary, Robert E. Stevenson, Office of the Administrator, Agricultural Research Service, U S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Molokai, the leper colony in the Hawaiian Islands, is supported by the U. S.

Keystone Sheep Breeders Top Three Classes

Pennsylvania sheep raisers swept the Cheviot ewe classes at the first Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition.

M P. Tait of Orefield, Lehigh County, showed the champion ewe of the show, the champion pen of yearlings and the best in the class under two years.

Mrs. David McDowell of Mercer, exhibited the winning lamb under one year, the best of three ewe lambs and the top exhibitor flock

Luther Belden of North Hatfield, Mass, judged the classes

The Pennsylvania State University showed the championship Dorset ram Dorsets from the University flock, also won the ram lamb under one year and the pen of three lamb classes.

William Duncan of Lake Villa, Illinois, showed the Champion Oxford ram, ewe and pen of four lambs. The Duncan entries competed with 11 entries from five states and were judged by Alex McKenzie of Oklahoma State University.

In Suffolk breeding sheep the championships were won by Mrs. Ford A. Cooper, Reynoldsville, Jefferson County, Pa., in rams, and by Stewart Bolling, Vanderpool, Va., in ewes.

In three other classes, pens of rams, pens of ewes, and exhibitor's flock, Bolling finished first and Mrs. Cooper second.

The judge was Alex McKenzie.

OXFORD

ONE OF THE LARGEST SHEEP shows in the nation was part of the Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition. The event drew breeders from all through the East and Mid-West. However Keystone State exhibitors held their own with the best of them, having champions in several classes. Penn State showed the top individual market wether (LF Photo)
